

We are learning to be followers of Jesus

'In Holiness and Learning'

We seek in our school to offer children a sense of belonging and worthwhile educational purpose underpinned by the Gospel values.

This school aims to build on established links with home and parish so that it is seen by all as a working worshipping community involving parish priest, governors, teachers and support staff and children.

"In our daily work,

We are learning to be followers of Jesus Christ"