

Big Question: How many different types of animal are there?

Exciting Books

LQ1	Can you sort living and non-living? (Grow; reproduce; feed; get rid of waste.)
LQ 2	Can you sort animals into groups? (Differences between animals: Birds, fish, amphibians, reptiles, mammals and also where they live..)
LQ 3	What are the senses and why are they important?
LQ 4	How many human body parts can you remember?

LQ 5	What body parts do animals have that humans don't?
------	--

Sticky Knowledge.

Vocabulary

LQ 6	Is that animal domestic?
------	--------------------------

I can show you my nose, hands, eyes, mouth and ears.
I know that living things grow and feed.

Fish, amphibians, reptiles, birds,

LQ 7	What do animals like to eat?
------	------------------------------

There are 5 senses: smell, touch, taste, hear and feel.

mammals, carnivore,

End Product	A range of posters..
-------------	----------------------

I can identify a range of domestic and wild animals.
I can identify birds, fish, reptiles and mammals.
I can identify the environment an animal lives in.

herbivore, omnivore,

Links to being taught.	'Myself' was explored in Reception. How things change over time and how they've grown was part of the History topic at the beginning of Year 1.
------------------------	---

spine, head, neck, arms, elbows, ears, eyes,

	It is covered throughout in KS 2 and in Year 2.
--	---

hair, mouth, teeth, senses, taste, sight, hearing, smell, touch,

Character	Empathy
-----------	---------

smell, touch, domestic.