

Big Question: If you did the crime, could you do the time?				Suggested Books
LQ1	How did the Romans influence our justice system?		Sticky Knowledge about Crime and Punishment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>❑ Roman laws were called the 12 tables</li><li>❑ Treason was considered the worst crime in Roman times</li><li>❑ Anglo-Saxon villages were divided into tithings made up of 10 men who were responsible for each other's behaviour.</li><li>❑ Wergild was an early form of compensation for victims of crime</li><li>❑ Tudor punishments were specifically designed to match the crime including 'The Drunkards Cloak' and 'The Scold's Bridle'.</li><li>❑ Public executions were very popular in Tudor times with an estimated 70,000 during the reign of Henry VIII</li><li>❑ Dick Turpin was a famous Highwayman</li><li>❑ The pistol was invented in the 17th century making it easy for highwaymen to threaten travellers</li><li>❑ Police were introduced in London in 1829</li><li>❑ Prisons became the main form of punishment during Victorian times</li></ul>
LQ 2	How did Anglo-Saxons deal with criminals?
LQ 3	How did the Tudors torture?
LQ 4	Were highwaymen heroes or villains?
LQ 5	What was it like to be a Victorian prisoner?
LQ 6	How has justice changed over time?
End Product	Animoto presentation on a chosen time period			Vocabulary	Justice, Jury, court, trial, law, victim, witness, trial by ordeal, execution, Isolation, separation, 12 tables, treason, weirgild, highwayman, police, hard labour
Links to previous topics	Victorians, Tudors, Anglo-Saxons, Romans, Work in English on The Highwayman.
Character Curriculum	Empathy Communication				