

Big Question: Why do people visit Wales?

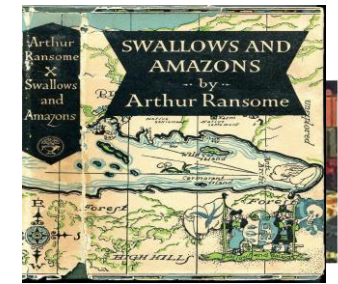

LQ1	Where is Wales and what will we find there?
LQ 2	How is the land used in our area compared to a town Wales?
LQ 3	How was the landscape of Wales formed?
LQ 4	Why do people visit the Wales?
LQ 5	Can I create an orienteering course?
End Product	An orienteering course and map of school grounds
Links to previous topics	Mountains – Year 5 The United Kingdom – Year 1
Character Curriculum	Resilience Self Aware

Sticky Knowledge

- The capital city of Wales is Cardiff, located in the south.
- Mount Snowdon is the highest mountain in Wales and stands at 1,085 metres tall.
- The longest river in Wales is the River Tywi, which flows for 120 km.
- Wales has a long coastline with many beaches and cliffs, especially along the Pembrokeshire Coast.
- Land use in Wales includes farming, forestry, tourism, and wind farms.
- Much of Wales is mountainous and rural, especially in areas like Snowdonia National Park.
- The Welsh language is one of the oldest living languages in Europe. Many people in Wales speak both Welsh and English.
- Popular tourist activities in Wales include hiking, surfing, exploring castles, and visiting national parks.
- Wales is known for its castles, with more castles per square mile than any other country in the world.
- National parks in Wales include Snowdonia, the Brecon Beacons (Bannau Brycheiniog), and the Pembrokeshire Coast.

Exciting Books

Vocabulary

Location, route, distance, direction, grid reference, settlement type, coast, physical, human, land use, features, traffic, vehicles, compass, ordnance survey, key, tourism, relief map, gradient, erosion.